EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1. Introduction

The African Council for Distance Education (ACDE) is a continental educational network comprising African universities and other higher institutions of learning, which are committed to expanding access to quality education and training through Open and Distance Learning (ODL), including e-learning. It is registered under the laws of Kenya as an international educational non-profit making organization, and has its headquarters in Nairobi, Kenya.

The idea of the ACDE establishment was motivated by the desire of African Vice Chancellors to establish a unifying body that would facilitate and promote the pooling of resources, the shaping and influencing of continental policies on distance education, and collectively sourcing for and tapping into resources available from the national, regional and the international communities for the advancement of education and training through ODL.

This Strategic Plan (SP) for the period 2021 - 2025 has developed a clear statement of the Council's vision and mission, specified set of strategic objectives and formulated key strategies and projects that address those factors that are essential to the organisation's success.

The plan succeeds the strategic plan for 2016-2020 and has been prepared through an in-depth consultative process, designed to align the Council's activities with the aspirations of key stakeholders in the African Region.

2. ACDE Vision, Mission and Core Functions

The ACDE's strategic future direction is encapsulated in its statements of vision, mission, core functions and core values:

Vision

To be a major player in the promotion of and advocacy for Open, Distance and e-Learning (ODeL) in Africa.

Mission

To promote collaboration amongst actors in ODeL, advocate for policy, research and quality assurance in open and distance e-learning with the aim of increasing access to inclusive equitable quality education and training in Africa

Core Values

The ACDE is guided by the following core values: Transparency; Accountability; Integrity/Ethics; Collaboration; Equity; Responsiveness; Innovativeness; Results-oriented; Sustainability; Reliability; and Efficiency.

Core Functions

- a) To promote quality in open and distance learning including e-Learning, flexible and lifelong learning in Africa.
- b) To promote research and training in open and distance e-learning in Africa.

- c) To contribute to the development of policies essential to the advancement of open and distance e-learning.
- d) To foster continental and global collaboration in open and distance e-learning.
- e) To provide a forum where individuals, organizations and governments can interact, deliberate on policy matters, share and disseminate ideas on and innovations in open and distance e-learning.
- f)To promote the development of appropriate methods, human capacities and technologies in education and training relevant to open and distance e-learning.

3. Strategic Plan Development Process

To develop this strategic plan, a situation analysis of ACDE was undertaken by a committee that was constituted by the ACDE Executive Board in November 2020 with representation from ten ACDE Member Institutions. The committee participated in the review of the 2016-2020 SP and development of the 2021-2025 SP.

Through the situation analysis of ACDE programmes and activities, the committee came up with a score card of achievements based on four thematic areas namely: Our people (learning and growth); Clients/stakeholders/services/brand; internal systems and processes and financial sustainability as indicated in table 1. The committee further identified challenges that were experienced in implementing the ACDE 2016-2020 strategic plan. In addition, the committee identified opportunities that can be utilized in the 2021-2025 ACDE strategic plan.

4. Challenges Experienced in Implementing the 2016-2020 Strategic Plan

The following challenges were identified as a hindrance in implementing the 2016-2020 Strategic Plan:

- a. Lack of consistent subscription from ACDE members. While 58 member institutions were registered with ACDE, only 29 were active. However, the financial sustainability of the council was carried by only 15 member institutions who were subscribing consistently.
- b. Most institutions were not reached for training in the use of the ACDE-QA tool kit due to lack of funding.
- c. Lack of information on on-going ODL projects on the African continent that result in wasteful duplication
- d. Unavailability of and limited access to reliable, transparent and up-to-date information and data on ODL in Africa.
- e. Lack of research activities.
- f. ICT matters were not adequately covered under key results areas and strategic issues in the 2016-2020 Strategic Plan. Different universities have different ICT platforms, so creating one for all universities to use was not possible.

5. Opportunities

The opportunities identified include:

- a) Conduct surveys to:
 - Assess the impact of the QA tool kit in institutions that have adopted the use of the ACDE-QA toolkit. Collaborate with National QA Agencies to incorporate ACDE-QA toolkit in their evaluation instruments.
 - > Review of the ACDE-QA tool kit to accommodate e-Learning.
 - > Determine levels of collaboration among partner institutions.
 - > Activate dormant partnerships through consultative meetings.

- b) Encourage ACDE member institutions to forge more collaborations and partnerships in areas of ICT, training, research, OER and MOOCs.
- c) Encourage Regional Representatives to recruit new members and report progress on the link created between ACDE and their regions.
- d) Design and develop open and online capacity development programmes
- e) Engage in continental higher education policy issues in ODel
- f) Publish conference proceedings Develop collaborative activities with regional ODeL bodies.
- g) Encourage member institutions to report status of implementing OdeL programmes.
- h) Development of a framework for collaboration and partnership between and among the ACDE network of institutions and partners.
- i) Development and maintenance of a functional, interactive and dynamic continental ODeL Database. Explore the possibility of using social media to enhance visibility of ACDE to facilitate information sharing amongst stakeholders.
- j) Resuscitate the ACDE ODL research agenda, encourage member institutions to make voluntary contributions, Source funding from donors, create partnerships with publishing houses.
